EDMONSTON 1334 F Sr. N.W.

The ordinary routine of camp duty was followed at 9 o'clock by the formation of a regi-ment, with Maj. Gen. Kelly, commander-inchief of the Irish-American Military Union, in command. The column was marched to Military Park, on Broad street, where the numbers were increased by the addition of four companies of the first regiment of the New Jersey Sational Guard and several civic organizations. The parade was escorted by a squad of six mounted policemen from the fourth precinct. The parade passed over an asphalt-paved street-which, by the way, is a rarity in Newark-and our boys put up a drill that brought forth more applause than was given to any other command present. The soldiers were thoroughly tired out when camp was reached,

The organizations taking part in the parade were as follows: Companies A, B, C and D of the first regiment, New Jersey National Guard; the Emmet Guard, Guard Lafayette of New York, Liberty Guards of Jersey City Heights, company A, Alliance Guard, New York city; companies A and B, second regiment, Irish Volunteers of New York city; First Philadelphia Signal Corps, Parnell Guards of Elizabeth, N. J., companies A and B, first regiment, Irish regiments A and B, first regi Signal Corps, Parnell Guards of Elizabeth, N. J., companies A and B. first regiment, Irish Volunteers of Newark, N. J.; Ancient Order of Hibernians, with eight divisions; St. Patrick's i. J., companies A and B. first regiment, Irish colunteers of Newark, N. J.; Ancient Order of libernians, with eight divisions; St. Patrick's liliance and twenty of the general staff, counted.

Messrs. Arthur, George and Perry A. Gloyd of Gaithersburg are spending some weeks in Catalill mountains.

DRESS PARADE.

At 6 o'clock this evening we had a dress parade, followed by an exhibition drill by the Emmet Guard. It was a grand success, not-withstanding the unevenness of the ground. A veteran officer of one of New York's crack regiments remarked enthusiastically that it was the best he had ever seen, and as far as I know every one concedes that the, "Washingtons," as our boys are familiarly called, will carry off the cake tomorrow, when they will contest for the championship of the Irish-American Military Union.

At 7:30 this evening Prof. Nickol's Orchestra carry off the cake tomorrow, when they will contest for the championship of the Irish-American Military Union.

At 7:30 this evening Prof. Nickol's Orchestra of Newark rendered excellent music, which was stepped to by a majority of the Emmets—and I would whisper in your ear that nine ladies out of every ten who mingled with the gladsome throng wore one of our green badges, for they seem to prefer the handsome young men of our party to all others.

As Camp Columbus has grown older military discipline has become stricter, until now it is totally impossible for an enlisted man to either get out or into the grounds without a pass, which, although much sought after, are seldom obtained. The gates and other points requiring a guard were taken care of today, by Capt. Jas. F. R. Rodgers as officer of the day; Sergt. Ward as sergeant of the guard, Corp. Fallon as corporal of the guard, and Privates Quinlivan, Stafford, McSherry, Byrnes and Murphy as sentinels, all of company B of the Hibernian

Tomorrow will be the last day of this encampment, which has been very successful. There is in camp a light battery of artillery composed of Polanders. Their commander does not understand the English language and it was quite amusing to see him maneuvering his company during dress parade.

The boys say they are having a good time, but I think most of them will add a hearty note to the strains of "Home, Sweet Home," when the train carrying them to Washington starts.

After its meeting the Bachelors' Club entertained the Guard Lafayette from New York and neat speeches were made by Maj. Johnson, assistant signal officer of the Military Union, and President Shea of the club and Capt. Trebeau of the Lafayettes.

Over 4,000 people were registered for Takoma yesterday, most of whom were seeking or bound for Sligo.

Miss Bertie Page has issued invitations for Friday evening to a number of her young friends in Takoma for an informal social at her home on Manle avenue.

President Shea of the club and Capt. Trebeau of the Lafayettes.

The handsome gold medal awarded by the fourth battalion, D. C. N. G., to Private J. M. Walsh as their champion individual driller has been much admired by Mr. Walsh's many friends here, and he is justly proud of it, for it means that he is the best-drilled man in his battalion.

After reveille and breakfast yesterday morning and just before going on post as sentinels with their sons and Miss Edna Gilbert, will ing and just before going on post as sentinels Capt. Waish and his men gave an almost fault-Capt. Walsh and his men gave an almost fault-less company drill. They wore the regulation white helmet and blue uniform. The lawn was in fair condition, but nothing like the smooth floor of the drill hall in Center Market armory. However, this inconvenience made no differ-ence. The admirable exhibition was warmly received and heartily applauded by the large audience of enthusiastic lady friends and crit-ical officers. This company, without the least doubt, has more admirers here than any other organization on the ground.

Guard mount was followed by the regular Guard mount was followed by the regular routine of camp work, and several of our boys who succeeded in obtaining passes left camp—some to see the sights, others to visit acquaintances in Newark, Jersey City and New York. Dullness is a thing unknown in our midst at present, for the reason that the natural wit and joily good nature of the Irishman is continually asserting itself.

Session, Mrs. Lawrence, with her son and Miss Bessie Lawrence, having removed to Le Droit Park, a matter of regret to their many friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Heaton, sr., are guests of Mr. C. M. Heaton, jr. Mrs. Heaton left Monday for a few weeks' visit in Maine.

Miss Eltinge Marshall has returned from a visit to relative a in Alexander and miss.

Rice.

It rained yesterday, but our tents are well put up, and those at home need not worry about their soldier boys. Maj. Gen. Kelly had ordered a dress parade for this evening, but owing to the inclement weather the order was revoked. In place of the expected treat those present had one still better. Capt. Walsh and his company gave an exhibition drill in the pavilion. The boys wore their full-dress uniforms, and it would be difficult to find a handsomer. more soldierly lot of men. Their friends in Washington know what kind of drill they put up, and therefore I will not attempt to criticise tonight's affair.

Mrs. George McManus, Mrs. C. M. Jimmerson, with the Misses Edyth Page, C. M. Summy, Mabel Balley, N. McPherson, Jessie Christian Endeavorers of this place who accompanied the District Union C. E. S. on their annual excursion to Bay Ridge Saturday.

At the dance given last evening I was reminded very forcibly of an old saying to the effect that a soldier is more at home than a civilian when piloting a lady over the smooth floor of a ball room. Yesterday afternoon Sergt. T. McAnally, then formed, with Capt. Walsh in command. Mayor Haynes was then introduced and delivered an 'ddress of welcome. He was responded to by Mr. Ronays of the general staff. Mr. Augustine Costello of New York was next introduced and proceeded to deliver his address, when a great light blazed up on the lawn. A gasoline tank had fallen from its position in one of the trees and exploded, setting fire to the tables, chairs, &c. Several of the crowd of spectators and soldiers made a rush for the door, but the Emmet Guard stood fast to a man. Those who attempted to extinguish the fire used water, which merely spread the mischelf. It exploded for the second time and those in the vicinity jumped for their lives.

The first Philadelpha signal corps this afternoon gave an exhibition in signaling, and Col. Louis A. Buchy, its commander, deserves unlimited praise for the proficiency his men have acquired. The corps has a dog bearing the name of Spot, and this morning he followed the parade in a costume of ribbons.

Private Harlow is still enlivening the camp with his jokes, and they are good, just like everything else done or said by the Emmet Guards since we struck Newark.

The bove don't seem to worry much about "the girl I left behind me," for the young ladies of Newark are pleasant and attractive.

Je13-1m Quite a large number of citizens spent the day in visiting places of interest at a distance and during the day the town was visited by a large number of strangers, principally from the District. Those who visited the town for the first time were loud in their praises of the beauty of the place. Today business was almost entirely suspended and the juvenile portion of the population had full possession of the streets, which they made particularly lively with firecrackers and after changing their full dress uniforms for the more comfortable fatigues made for the dining room. Dancing and speeches were next in order, and the pavilion presented a lively appearance.

As the parade passed St. John's Catholic Church, of which Dr. Fanning, chaplain general of the order, is pastor, the church bells chimed "The Wearing of the Green."

The organizations taking part in the parade of the vicinity of Glen, died very suddenly at the more comfortable fatigues made for the day was an exciting game of base ball between the Lafayette Club of Washington and the Athletics of this place, resulting in a score of 18 to 7 in favor of the Rockville boys. The playing on both sides was very good, and the game was witnessed by a large crowd, including quite a number of young ladies. After dark there was a fine display of fireworks in various parts of the town.
